PRESS RELEASE

Capt. Marissa Tindale
August 15, 2011

On August 9th at 1:46 p.m., Werner Ihde age 19 of St. Simons Island, reported being followed by a green Mercury Mountaineer bearing a Florida tag. The victim reported the Mercury entered the Sea Island employee parking lot and stopped behind him. The victim said a white male got out of the Mercury and displayed a badge and a gun. The victim was handcuffed by the suspect. The victim reported the suspect used profanity and yelled at him about driving too fast. The victim said the suspect looked in his vehicle and took the handcuffs off prior to leaving the scene. The victim was not injured.

On August 15, 2011, Glynn County Police officers located the suspect vehicle on St. Simons Island. Jonathan Arroyo, age 19, of St. Simons Island has been arrested and charged with impersonating a police officer, aggravated assault, false imprisonment and possession of a weapon during the commission of a crime.

The incident is being investigated by Inv. Rod Nohilly, 554-7837.
